The Rogersville Female Institute.

THE CHANCERY COURT AT ROGERSVILLE, in the cause of John Netherland and others vs. the Board of Trustees of the Rogersville Female College and others, at its May Term, 1873, having decreed that the Clerk and Master sell the real estate and personal property of the Board of Trustees of the Rogersville Female College, in obedience to and under the authority of said decree, I will, on the premises, in the town of Rogersville, on Tuesday, July 15th, 1873, sell to the highest bidder therefor, the said real estate, consisting tof about FORTY ACRES, on which is situated the extensive and elegant college buildings, which were erected at great expense expressly for a of the first class. These buildings are constructed with a view alike to beauty and convenience, and have always been considered as the complete and tasteful in East Tennessee.

At the same time I will also sell the furniture and other personal property of the College.

TERMS: A small per cent, of the sale money—not less than 10 nor more than 12—the precise amount to be made known on the day of sale, to be paid in hand, of the remainder, one third to be paid at one year, one third at eighteen months, and one-third at two years from the day of sale. The postponed payments are required to be secured by notes, bearing interest from day of sale, with personal security, and a lien for the security of the same will also be retained on the property.

The rerl estate will be sold free from the equity of redemption, and the purchaser's title will be absolute and unencumbered.

The purchaser can have immediate possession.

Clerk and Master.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, R. H. BROWN, OF THE COUNTY of Knox and State of Tennessee, did. on the 1st day of November, A. D. 1872, make. execute and deliver to me, the undersigned, his trust deed, as the same appears of record in the Register's office, State and county aforesaid, in Trust Book B, vol. 1, pages 314-15, and noted in Note Book A, page 12, to secure Cowan, McClung & Co. in a promissory note and interest thereon, due them from the said Brown, drawn November 13th, A. D. 1871, payable one day after date, and calling for seven hundred (700) dollars, whereon are the following credits, to-wit: January 1st, 1872, $100 00; March 22d, 1872, $50 00; April 12th, 1872, $50 00. And. whereas, the time within which said note, together with the interest, was to have been paid has expired, by the terms and conditions of said deed of trust;

Now, therefore, in view of the premises and the powers in me vested. I will proceed to sell, in bar of the equity of redemption, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, at the court house door in Knoxville, Tennessee, on the 12th day of July next, at 10 e'clock, A. M., the following described lot, 'situate on Crozier street, in Knoxville, Tennessee, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Being lot No. 23, purchased by Thomas E. Oldham at a sale made under a decree of the Chancery Court, fronting fifty feet and running back one hundred and fifty feet, more or less, and by said Oldham conveyed to said Brown on the 27th of August, 1863.

The proceeds arising out of said sale will be applied.

The proceeds arising out of said sale will be applied, first, to the payment of the costs of the same; secondly, to the satisfaction of said note, amounting on date of sale, including interest, to five hundred and forty (540) dollars and eighty-eight (88) cents; and lastly, the balance, if any, will be paid to said R. H. Brown. Immediately after the sale a deed in fee simple will be given, and also possession.
